STAFF DISCIPLINE POLICY & PROCEDURE

Approved by SMT: 25 th September 2023	Approved by Staff: 2 nd October 2023	Approved by Governors: 12 th October 2023
Next Review date: Autumn 2026	Person(s) responsible for review: Head Teacher / HR Advisor / Business Manager

Governors/Headteachers/Managers and Investigating Officers may find Discipline Guidance G303 (Educator Solutions) useful when implementing this policy and procedure. G303 can be found on HR InfoSpace.

1. Purpose and scope

- 1.1 This policy and procedure supports the Governing Body's standards and rules (including the Discipline Guidance) on conduct for employees and aims to ensure consistent and fair treatment for all. It is not there to deal with problems associated with unsatisfactory work performance arising from an employee's lack of capability or medical issues.
- 1.2 The procedure applies to all employees including support staff in their probationary period. Any disciplinary action will be taken into account at the final assessment of the probationary period. Please refer to the school's probation policy & procedure for further considerations when this situation arises. Paragraphs 4 and 5 of the school's probation policy & procedure detail these considerations.
- 1.3 Any complaints from parents (or others associated with the school) concerning the conduct of a member of staff should be dealt with under this employee discipline procedure and not the school's complaints procedure. The details of the investigation and any sanction given as an outcome will remain confidential.
- 1.4 Disciplinary issues relating to all employees must be handled in a fair and equitable manner. Each case must be looked at on its own merits and any relevant circumstances taken into account.
- 1.5 The Headteacher (and/or governors when appropriate) is responsible for operating this procedure and is able to issue disciplinary warnings. Legislation allows for dismissal decisions to be made by:-

- one or more governors
- the Headteacher
- one or more governors with the Headteacher

The Governing Body should, on at least an annual basis, discuss and agree where responsibility for dismissal of staff (other than the Headteacher) will fall and their decision must be formally recorded in the minutes of the full governing body meeting.

- 1.6 Where the conduct of the Headteacher is the focus of this procedure, all references to "Headteacher" in the text should be read "Chair of Governors or other nominated governor with advice and support from the Director of Children's Services or her representatives". At all stages in the process, the Chair of Governors should work with, and take advice from, the appointed representative(s) of the Director of Children's Services. Where there is a case to answer, a panel of governors shall be convened to consider the allegations and take disciplinary action, including dismissal, where appropriate.
- 1.7 The Headteacher and Governors are advised to consult the Discipline Guidance G303 (as mentioned above) document for more detailed support in how to consider alleged disciplinary offences. Where alleged misconduct appears to warrant action under the procedure, advice should be sought from Educator Solutions HR Services (01603 307760 or HRenquiry@educatorsolutions.org.uk)
- 1.8 The Governing Body has overall responsibility for specifying the standards of behaviour required, enforcing the rules and ensuring that any breaches are tackled promptly.
- 1.9 Employees who abuse this (or any other) procedure by making malicious or frivolous allegations may face disciplinary action.
- 1.10 All parties involved in a disciplinary matter should treat the information which is the subject of the disciplinary investigation in strict confidence.
- 1.11 Information should not be shared with anyone who is not directly involved in these procedures. However those involved can discuss these matters with their representatives or advisers and, in some cases, there will be a requirement for information to be shared with other bodies (for example, where allegations of abuse are made or suitability to work with children in the future may be a concern).
- 1.12 Not every act of misconduct will warrant the formal disciplinary procedure to be initiated. Low level acts of misconduct may result in an informal conversation with the Headteacher to ensure the employee understands their act of misconduct was not acceptable. For these low level issues, being accompanied by a trade union representative or work colleague is probably unnecessary but the school will facilitate this if the employee requests it. An employee may also be given a 'letter of expectation' to help them understand what is expected of them. Where low level acts of misconduct are repeated or are sufficiently serious the disciplinary process will be initiated.

2. Procedure

- 2.1 An employee who is subject to this procedure has the right to be:

- accompanied by a trade union representative or work colleague at the investigation stage; and
 - represented by a trade union representative or work colleague at a disciplinary/appeal hearing.
- 2.2 The employee is responsible for arranging to be accompanied or represented.
- 2.3 Where an employee discloses a mental health issue, which could be a disability, reasonable adjustments will be made to the procedure. Where it is clear the process is causing repeated signs of distress to someone involved in the procedure, the Headteacher will ensure the individual is aware of the support offered by Norfolk Support Line or suggest the employee seeks advice from their GP. In some cases, help may need to be sought from Occupational Health, with the agreement of the employee, to determine how the procedure can continue fairly. Advice will be sought from Educator Solutions HR in these situations.
- 2.4 An employee can be offered transfer to alternative employment in the school (including demotion to a post with less responsibility on a lower grade) as an alternative to dismissal, either as a result of a disciplinary hearing or on appeal, if this is considered appropriate and the employee is in agreement. This would not be an option in cases of summary dismissal for gross misconduct and is unlikely to be deemed appropriate where the employee's misconduct was linked to working with children.
- 2.5 If the employee concerned is a trade union steward or officer, the Headteacher should, with the agreement of the employee, inform the full-time trade union officer prior to commencement of this procedure. Advice on this should be taken from Educator Solutions HR Direct.
- 2.6 No employee will be dismissed for their first breach of discipline, unless it is a case of gross misconduct.
- 2.7 This procedure does not apply in respect of a dismissal that is:
- As a consequence of the expiry of temporary employment or a fixed term contract
 - As a consequence of redundancy (see separate arrangements in the Schools Staffing Adjustment Policy)
 - When less than 6 months of probationary service has been completed (support staff only) and dismissal arises from unsuitability for confirmation of employment (see the Schools probationary policy and procedure for further information)
 - As a consequence of ill health (either short or long-term sickness absence)
 - As a consequence of the application of the capability procedure.
- 3. Cases involving child protection issues, vulnerable adults or financial irregularities
- 3.1 Any complaint involving allegations relating to child protection issues must be referred to the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) and then their advice must be considered before any investigation takes place under this procedure. There is no discretion for Headteachers over whether or not to discuss such allegations with the LADO. All cases must be discussed where a child is involved and/or may be at risk or where the allegation is such that if judged to have foundation may bring into question the employee's suitability to work with children in the future. The LADO will then determine whether a formal LADO referral needs to take place and will advise on the appropriate course of action in line with the statutory guidance on handling allegations against members of staff who work with children.

- 3.2 The Local Authority's Chief Internal Auditor must be notified of any allegations or indications of any financial irregularities immediately. There is an obligation on the school to raise the concern with Educator Solutions HR Services or Educator Solutions Finance and Business Services in the first instance. Advice will then be given on ensuring school finances are secure and on appropriate action to investigate. In some situations, where loss of money has been incurred, a decision may need to be taken to consult with the police. The results of the Audit investigations will form part of the conclusion and recommendation of the Investigatory report.
- 3.3 Where the allegations made raise questions about health and safety practice in the school, whether this is caused by an accident or incident, a "near miss" or is an apparent breach of health and safety requirements, there is a statutory requirement for the matter to be reported. For schools, the requirement is for the Headteacher to refer the matter to the Authority's Health, Safety and Well-being Manager who will then consider whether the threshold for referral to the Health and Safety Executive has been met. The Health, Safety and Well-being Manager will then advise on appropriate investigation either alongside or as part of a disciplinary investigation.

4. Suspension

- 4.1 The law delegates suspension to the Headteacher or nominated governors. In the case of employees other than the Headteacher, the Headteacher would normally take the decision to suspend. In the case of suspension of the Headteacher, the Chair of Governors (or other nominated governor) would take the decision.
- 4.2 If there are clear indications that an employee has acted in a manner which may constitute gross misconduct, and because there is no alternative having completed the Suspension checklist C303, suspension would be appropriate. The Headteacher or nominated governor should consult the employee before the decision to suspend is taken.
- 4.3 When a decision to suspend is taken, it must be made clear that the suspension is neither a disciplinary penalty nor an assumption of guilt. The employee must be given the details of people or organisations they can contact for support whilst suspended, e.g. Norfolk Support Line, and an internal point of contact (not be involved in the disciplinary investigation in any way) who will keep the employee informed of everyday developments in school in order to minimise any sense of isolation during the period of suspension and can be a conduit for the suspended employee's requests for information that fall outside the remit of the investigation (e.g. information relating to their normal terms and conditions of employment).
- 4.4 Gross misconduct is generally defined as misconduct serious enough to fundamentally undermine (i.e. damage beyond repair) the employment contract between the employer and the employee and to make any future working relationship and trust impossible. Expected behaviours are outlined in the School Code of Conduct and examples of gross misconduct are given in the Discipline Guidance on conduct for employees document.

- 4.5 If a suspended employee is certificated by their GP as being unfit for work, they will be paid in accordance with their sick pay entitlement for that period of certification. This means that if a period of certificated sick leave continues beyond the employee's entitlement to full pay, they will receive pay in line with their sick pay entitlement which may be at half pay or no pay rate.
- 4.6 At frequent intervals, the Headteacher and/or nominated governor should review whether an employee should remain suspended. Any suspension which extends beyond four working weeks must be reported to the Chair of Governors with details of how the investigation is progressing and when it is likely to end. Where any suspension continues for three months, the employee must be notified of the reasons for the suspension continuing and when it is likely to come to an end.
- 4.7 The responsibility for lifting suspension rests with the Governing Body although this can be delegated to the Chair of Governors.

5. Investigation

- 5.1 Disciplinary action must not be taken before there has been an investigation into the circumstances.
- 5.2 Good practice suggests that the investigation should be undertaken by an appropriate individual other than the individual who will consider whether a sanction should be applied. In larger schools, there is likely to be scope for the investigation to be conducted by a Deputy or Assistant Headteacher or the Business Manager, leaving the Headteacher free to hear the case. In small schools, this may not be an option and the Headteacher may need to conduct the investigation themselves. Consideration as to who will carry out the investigation will be particularly important in those schools where the authority to dismiss has been delegated to the Headteacher. Where allegations have been made against the Headteacher, the Chair of Governors (or nominated governor) is advised to seek support for the investigation through the Director of Children's Services. At Sheringham Woodfields School, it is the Business Manager that will lead on all investigations.
- 5.3 The employee may be required (and this would normally be the case) to attend a formal investigatory interview. The employee must receive at least five working days' notice, in writing, of the requirement for them to attend. The letter should give them information about the allegations and their opportunity to be accompanied by a trade union representative or work colleague. The school will always seek to have the schools HR consultant in attendance at said meetings.
- 5.4 The investigation should be completed within four working weeks unless there are exceptional circumstances.
- 5.5 On completion of the investigation, the Headteacher (or nominated Governor where allegations are against the Headteacher) should review all the information available and decide which of the following is appropriate:
- no action*;
 - informal advice and discussion;
 - consideration under the formal disciplinary procedure (see 6 below).

Headteachers should also decide that if an allegation is shown to be malicious or frivolous, whether any disciplinary action should be taken against the person who made it. If this person was not an employee (e.g. a pupil) the procedure for this is outside the scope of this policy.

*In some cases, specifically those where allegations are made by a pupil or relate to claimed abuse of a pupil, a "no action" decision is likely to be the outcome when the allegation was either substantiated but not serious enough to warrant disciplinary action, unsubstantiated or malicious. The child protection process overseen by the LADO will help in this determination and will ensure that a finding is made. The issue of whether an allegation is found to be unsubstantiated or even malicious is significant for the employee, particularly around what records are held on file and what is said in a reference.

6. Disciplinary hearing

- 6.1 If the Headteacher (or nominated Governor) concludes, following investigation, that there is a case to answer at a disciplinary hearing, the employee will be notified in writing that a hearing will take place. The employee should be given at least five working days notice of the hearing. If the employee's union representative is unable to make the specified date, the employee can propose a reasonable, alternative date within five days. However, consideration will be given to allow more time for a re-arranged meeting, particularly in cases that might result in a dismissal, as long as the longer postponement will not cause unreasonable delay in the procedure. In these situations, the Headteacher (or nominated Governor) will consider the facts of the case and decide what is fair and reasonable in the circumstances. Because of this, the approach may be taken to consult the union representative on their availability before setting a date.

The following information should also be included in the letter:

- who will make the decision regarding disciplinary action;
- a copy of the schools disciplinary policy and procedure;
- the date and time of the hearing;
- details of the allegations;
- reference to any documents that may form part of the evidence supporting the complaint or allegation and, where possible, a copy of these;
- the names of any witnesses to be called;
- the fact that the employee will have the opportunity to state their case and question any witnesses;
- the right to invite a trade union representative or work colleague to represent them;
- any previous warnings that could be taken into account when deciding the level of any disciplinary action;
- the fact that, depending on its findings, the hearing could result in disciplinary action and (adding where appropriate) that this could include dismissal;
- a statement that the employee must take all reasonable steps to attend the meeting.

A second copy of the documentation above should be provided to the employee for them to pass to their trade union representative or work colleague. If requested by the employee, this second set of papers can be issued direct to the trade union representative or work colleague.

- 6.2 Where the alleged misconduct is not likely to require a sanction beyond a Final Written Warning, the case will be heard by the Headteacher (or a panel of governors where the Headteacher's conduct is in question).
- 6.3 Where the alleged misconduct has the potential to result in dismissal, the case will be heard by a panel of governors unless the authority to dismiss has been delegated to the Headteacher, in which case the Headteacher will hear the case. The exception to this is where the Headteacher's conduct is in question.
- 6.4 At a disciplinary hearing which may result in dismissal, a representative of the Local Authority (a senior member of the HR team) must be present to advise the Governors' Disciplinary Panel. A full set of the papers detailed in 6.1 must be issued to Local Authority adviser at least five days in advance of the hearing.
- 6.5 The hearing should follow the sequence of steps detailed in the Schools Procedure at Disciplinary, Dismissal and Appeal Committee hearings.
- 6.6 Disciplinary action can be taken at any level from a recorded oral warning to dismissal, depending on the nature of the misconduct.

7. Result of hearing - disciplinary action

If, following an investigation and disciplinary hearing, the Headteacher (or nominated Governor) concludes that disciplinary action is required, the following options are available:

7.1 Recorded oral warning

If the conduct concerned is unacceptable but not serious in nature, a recorded warning will normally be appropriate. (See paragraph 7.5 about written confirmation.)

7.2 Written warning

If the offence is too serious for a recorded oral warning, or if there is further misconduct while a recorded oral warning remains in force, the Headteacher/ governors may determine to give the employee a written warning. (See paragraph 7.4 about written confirmation).

7.3 Final written warning

If the misconduct is too serious for a written warning but not serious enough to warrant dismissal, or if there is further misconduct while a previous written warning remains in force, the Headteacher/governors may determine to give the employee a final written warning. (See paragraph 7.4 about written confirmation).

7.4 Written confirmation of warnings

The Headteacher/governors must give the employee written confirmation of any warning, within five working days together with an explanation of:

- the reason for the warning;

- whether it is a recorded, written or final warning;
- the employee's right of appeal (see paragraph 9);
- the fact that a permanent note will be kept on their personal file indicating that a warning has been given, the reasons for it and any required improvements in conduct which have been specified;
- the fact that further misconduct may lead to further disciplinary action which could, where appropriate, include dismissal;
- the fact that the warning will be disregarded for further disciplinary purposes after the expiry of the time period.

7.5 Dismissal with notice (including dismissal with offer of re-engagement)

If, while a final written warning is still in force, the employee's conduct is still unsatisfactory, as determined by a subsequent investigation and disciplinary hearing, the Headteacher/disciplinary panel will determine to dismiss with contractual notice. The Headteacher/Chair of the Disciplinary Panel will confirm the dismissal recommendation in writing within five working days, explaining the reasons for the dismissal and the employee's right of appeal. (See paragraph 9). The employee will receive full pay during the notice period. As a foundation school, Sheringham Woodfields will issue the formal confirmation of dismissal to bring employment to an end.

If appropriate and an opportunity exists, the Headteacher or panel of governors may dismiss an employee on the above grounds and offer to re-employ them in a different job in the school. The alternative post should be identified when the employee is told the outcome of the disciplinary hearing and this may require the proceedings to be adjourned. The alternative post may mean demotion to a lower grade. No pay protection will apply. A final written warning will form part of such a disciplinary decision. If the employee refuses the offer of transfer/demotion, their dismissal will take place.

7.6 Summary dismissal

If, following an investigation and disciplinary hearing, the Headteacher or panel of governors is satisfied that an employee is guilty of gross misconduct, the determination can be made to dismiss the employee. The Headteacher or Chair of the Disciplinary Panel will confirm the determination to dismiss in writing, within five working days explaining the reasons for the dismissal and the employee's right of appeal. As a foundation school, Sheringham Woodfields will issue the formal confirmation of dismissal to bring employment to an end.

8. Time limits for warnings

8.1 Unless there are exceptional circumstances, disciplinary warnings will be disregarded for disciplinary purposes once the following periods of time have elapsed since the warning was given:

- recorded warnings - 6 months
- written warnings - 1 year
- final written warnings - normally 1 year, or such other time as is considered appropriate - see paragraph 8.2 below

- 8.2 Depending upon the nature of the misconduct, the Headteacher or Governors' Disciplinary Panel may impose a final written warning that will remain in force for a period of greater than 1 year. It is advised that the warning should have a time limit of a minimum of 1 year and a maximum of 2. In considering an appropriate timescale the Headteacher or disciplinary panel will need to take into account the nature of the misconduct. The timeframe should not be dependent on the severity of the misconduct because the level of sanction reflects this. The timeframe should be enough that it gives time to see a positive change in behaviour. For example, if the warning relates to an event that only happens once a year or for a limited time each year (e.g. exams, SAT's, non-curriculum days), the decision may be for a two year timeframe to allow two annual cycles to be completed to ensure conduct has been adjusted. In other cases where it relates to regular events that happen every day (e.g. interaction with children or colleagues) a one year period may well be enough to see that conduct has been adjusted. In any event the employee must be told at the outset and in writing how long the warning will remain in force and the reason for the longer time period. There is no need for an employee to apply to request that the sanction is expired as it will automatically expire at the end of the time limit given, unless an extension is required. However, the record will remain on the employee's file.
- 8.3 As Sheringham Woodfields School is a foundation school, the Governing Body is the employer and therefore the decision to dismiss should be acted on by the school.
- 8.4 In exceptional circumstances (eg abuse against children), the written warning may be extended for as long as the employee concerned is employed in their current job or a similar job. If an employee considers that the extended time period is unreasonable, they may appeal to the Clerk to the Governors who will convene an Appeal Hearing.
- 8.5 Where disciplinary action relates to abuse against children, breaches of financial regulations or issues which relate to racial, sexual or disability discrimination, the relevant documentation should be retained on the employee's personal file until the employee reaches 65 years or 10 years which ever is the longer, but will not form part of any subsequent disciplinary action if it is time-expired. It is important that a comprehensive summary of the allegation, details of how the allegation was followed up and resolved, and a note of any action taken and decisions reached, is kept on the file of the person accused and a copy provided to the person concerned. If the allegations are found to have been malicious they should be removed from the employee's personal file. Currently, the Goddard Inquiry requires that all documentation is kept indefinitely for any individual who has worked with children in the school.

The purpose of this record is to:

- enable accurate information to be given in response to future references
- prevent unnecessary re-investigation should an allegation re-surface
- provide clarification if a future DBS check revealed the allegation (which did not result in a criminal conviction)

- 8.6 In all other disciplinary actions the relevant documentation will be removed from the file and will be destroyed, with the exception of the letter to the employee which confirms the outcome of the disciplinary hearing. This letter will not, however, form part of any subsequent disciplinary action if it is time-expired.

9. Appeals

- 9.1 An employee who wants to appeal against a disciplinary decision should inform the Clerk to the Governors within five working days of receiving the decision in writing. The employee must explain the grounds for the appeal, specifying whether it relates to:
- a defect in the procedure
 - there was insufficient evidence to support the finding
 - the disciplinary sanction was too severe
 - new key evidence, not taken into account at the hearing, has come to light since the hearing which may have an impact on the decision.

It is possible that, if new evidence has come to light since the hearing, the matter is referred back to the individual or panel who made the decision rather than proceeding directly to appeal.

- 9.2 The purpose of an appeal is:
- to review the decision taken by the Headteacher or panel of governors;
 - to consider whether the procedure has been followed correctly.
- 9.3 The Appeal will normally be conducted as a 'Review Meeting' unless it is claimed:
- there was a procedural defect at the original hearing such that the hearing was unfair.
 - new evidence has come to light which needs to be heard in full.
 - there is a dispute about evidence given by one or more witnesses at the original hearing.

Note that this is not an exhaustive list.

In these cases, the appeal will normally be conducted as a re-hearing (in full or part). It may be necessary to re-hear the witness evidence at the appeal. The decision as to whether the hearing will be conducted as a re-hearing or a review meeting rests ultimately with the Appeals Panel.

- 9.4 For all appeals.

The Appeals Panel will have available all the documents presented to the original hearing. They will also have a copy of the record of the hearing, the letter confirming the outcome of the original disciplinary hearing, the letter of appeal and all other relevant information. The Appeals Panel will reach findings based on the documentation and the submissions at the appeal hearing from the parties.

- 9.5 Procedure for Review Meetings

The procedure for a review meeting will be that the employee and/or their representative will first put their case by explaining the grounds of appeal and presenting any relevant evidence. The management case will then be put, responding to the grounds of appeal and presenting any relevant evidence. Opportunities for questioning will be included. Relevant witnesses may be brought by either side and may be questioned by all parties.

- 9.6 Procedure for Re-hearings

The procedure for a 'rehearing' will be:-

The procedure for a review meeting will be that the grounds for appeal will be clearly established. The management case will then be presented with relevant evidence followed by the employee and/or their representative presenting their response with relevant evidence. Opportunities for questioning will be included. Relevant witnesses may be brought by either side and may be questioned by all parties. The Schools Disciplinary, Dismissal and Appeal Committee hearings procedure will be used as a framework for a re-hearing.

- 9.7 The employee will be given at least five days notice of the appeal hearing and will be given the following information in a letter:
- who will hear the appeal,
 - The procedure to be followed (i.e. a re-hearing or a review meeting)
 - date, time and place of the appeal hearing,
 - a reference to any key documents that may form part of the hearing and, if appropriate, copies of these,
 - the right of the employee to be accompanied by a companion,
 - a statement that the employee must take all reasonable steps to attend the meeting,
 - the names of any witnesses to be called by those putting the case against the employee; similarly a statement that the employee may call witnesses,
 - a statement of the range of possible outcomes of the hearing.
- 9.8 An appeal against any warning or dismissal will be heard by a panel of three governors who have not previously been involved in the case. The appeal will normally take place within six working weeks of the appeal request being received by the Clerk to the Governors.
- 9.9 At an appeal hearing against dismissal, a representative of the Local Authority (a senior member of the HR team) must be present to advise the Appeals Panel.
- 9.10 The Headteacher/Chair of Governors' Disciplinary Panel will present the case at any appeal against a disciplinary decision.
- 9.11 The outcomes open to the Appeal Panel are to:
- uphold the appeal (i.e. the appeal is successful), in which case any related sanction will be removed
 - reject the appeal in full or in part, in which case the sanction will then be the same or a lesser penalty
 - (exceptionally) reject the appeal and impose a higher level of warning up to and including a final written warning.
- 9.12 The Chair of the Appeals Panel must confirm the decision of the Panel in writing to the employee within five days.

10 Further statutory requirements

10.1 Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)

The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act (SVGA) 2006 places a duty on employers of people working with children or vulnerable adults to make a referral to the DBS in certain circumstances. This is when an employer has dismissed or removed a person from working with children or vulnerable adults (or would or may have if the person had not left or resigned etc.) because the person has:

- i. Been cautioned or convicted for a relevant offence; or
- ii. Engaged in relevant conduct in relation to children and/or vulnerable adults [i.e. an action or inaction (neglect) that has harmed a child or vulnerable adult or put them at risk of harm]; or
- iii. Satisfied the Harm Test in relation to children and/or vulnerable adults. [i.e. there has been no relevant conduct (i.e. no action or inaction) but a risk of harm to a child or vulnerable adult still exists].

10.2 Teacher Regulation Agency

Whether or not a teacher who has been dismissed for misconduct is referred to the DBS, they must be referred to the Teacher Regulation Agency.

10.3 Statutory guidance exists which requires employers to see through to a conclusion disciplinary cases linked to child safeguarding. Even in situations where an employee resigns from the school when they could have been dismissed, the case should be heard in accordance with this procedure so that a decision is reached and referral made to the DBS and/or Teacher Regulation Agency can be made as appropriate.

10.4 There is a requirement for any post-dismissal referrals (DBS and/or Teacher Regulation Agency) to be completed within one month of employment ending.

11 Data Protection

11.1 The school processes personal data collected during the investigation stage and any subsequent stages of disciplinary action in accordance with its data protection policy. In particular, data collected as part of the investigation stage and any subsequent stages of disciplinary action is held securely and accessed by, and disclosed to, individuals only for the purposes of completing the disciplinary procedure. Inappropriate access or disclosure of employee data constitutes a data breach and should be reported in accordance with the school's data protection policy immediately. It may also constitute a disciplinary offence, which will be dealt with under this disciplinary procedure.
